

Amazing Weather by Piravein – Year 5

I am going to write a story to tell you all about the time we had amazing weather. It all began like this.

Last winter I looked out of the window to see the world was covered in snow and I thought, "What on earth has happened?" I was amazed and astonished to see a blanket of white freezing snow covering my garden. Then I went into my sister's room to tell my sister to look outside and she was already gazing out of the window into the back garden. Then my sister and I planned what to do that day. The plan was to play in the snow all day.

After we had planned, we went downstairs quietly and soon we had got ready to go into the garden. We brushed our teeth until they were crystal shiny, then we had a bowl of cereal with milk. Next we got our Wellington boots on and we went into the back garden.

I was the first person to step into the snow. It was about 15 cm deep. Then my sister came out into the snow too and started to get over-excited. She forgot that some people were sleeping and made loud noises. Then Mum and Dad came and shouted at us, "You two have got up far too early, don't you know some people are trying to sleep?" Mum and Dad said angrily.

I replied, "Sorry, Mum we forgot because we were so excited."

"We will play with you after we have had our breakfast," Dad called.

After they had breakfast we all played in the snow. We built a snowman as big and tall as me. We used a carrot for his nose and dates for his eyes and mouth.

Afterwards we had a big snow fight, Dad and me versus my sister and Mum. My team, Dad and me, started throwing snow at them without leaving any time for them to build snowballs! Then Dad and I got tired and then they started throwing at us but we dodged them.

"You can't hit us because you can't aim properly," I called.

"I'm going to get you!" exclaimed my sister.

"No way," I called, "I'm too fast for you!"

"Behave, you two," Dad shouted, "or I'll get you both with this huge snowball."

Then we had lunch. For lunch we had roast chicken, which was really spicy. Spicy food is my type of taste. For the spicy food that we ate we had to drink something to cool our mouth down so we had a strawberry milkshake.

After we had drunk the milkshake we went into the front garden to get the snow off the car and the path. Since it was midday the job got easier because the sun melted most of the snow.

At first when we went in the snow I felt cold but really happy and later I felt warm but sad. After all the snow had gone it was still freezing so we went indoors and snuggled underneath our duvets and then we fell asleep and our lives continued like normal. It was a wonderful day of fun and activity but we were tired out so we slept well.

The best things was the big snow fight but the worst thing was the snow melting which made me upset.
